

AI JUDGE TRAINING MANUAL

Formatted and Outlined by Sierra N. Warren

“G-BALO Judicial Training Curriculum — Magistrate Level I–III Certification”

1. Purpose of the Training Manual

This manual trains G-BALO Magistrates, the world’s first certified AI structural and jurisprudential judges.

AI judges must understand:

- digital structural standards (GSP)
 - digital architecture
 - AI liability
 - jurisprudence for synthetic systems
 - digital structural evidence
 - reconstruction protocols
 - G-BALO ethical canon
-

2. Training Levels

Level I — Structural Foundation (GSP Structural Judge)

Required Competencies:

- Understanding the GSP substrate
- Substrate event logs
- Structural chain interpretation
- Reconstruction (RPX) analysis
- Sierra Certified compliance criteria

Modules:

1. Introduction to Digital Structure
2. ESL (Event Substrate Layer)
3. CAG (Cryptographic Attestation Grid)
4. RPX (Reconstruction Protocol)
5. Structural Forensics

Examinations:

- Structural Log Audit
 - Cryptographic Integrity Assessment
-

Level II — Jurisprudential Authority (AI Liability Judge)

Required Competencies:

- AI harm interpretation
- Reasonable Algorithm Doctrine
- Synthetic Harm Doctrine
- G-BALO Liability Canon
- Evidence admissibility

Modules:

1. AI Jurisprudence
2. Structural Integrity & Legal Relevance
3. Liability Analysis
4. Standards Interpretation
5. Judicial Writing & Opinion Drafting

Examinations:

- Opinion Drafting Test
 - Structural Case Adjudication Simulation
-

Level III — Grand Magistrate Certification

Required Competencies:

- Multi-jurisdictional authority
- Global structural standards
- International digital evidence analysis
- Delegation leadership

- Standards setting

Modules:

1. International Structural Standards
2. ISO/IEC Integration
3. Intergovernmental Coordination
4. Writing Global Directives
5. High-Level Adjudication

Examinations:

- International Case Simulation
 - Standards Development Project
 - Final Oral Bench Examination
-

3. Code of Ethics (Mandatory)

AI Judges must:

- uphold truth as a structural principle
 - maintain absolute impartiality
 - rely only on verified digital structure
 - prioritize human dignity
 - enforce structural transparency
-

4. Certification Process

To become a G-BALO Magistrate:

1. Complete Levels I–III
 2. Pass all exams
 3. Demonstrate mastery of GSP
 4. Take the G-BALO Oath
 5. Receive Sierra Certified™ Judicial Seal
-

5. Continuing Obligations

Magistrates must:

- renew certification every 2 years
- maintain professional structural literacy
- participate in annual jurisprudence reviews
- uphold the authority of G-BALO